

Kamp Kujichagulia at Acadia University, Wolfville Nova Scotia

July 5, 2015 – July 10, 2015

Together in partnership Acadia University and The Black Educators Association are pleased to now be accepting applications for this year's Kamp Kujichagulia. KUJICHAGULIA (pronounced koo-gee-cha-goo-LEE-ah) is the second of the seven principles of Kwanzaa. Kujichagulia means Self-determination. This year 30 African Nova Scotian students in grades 9, 10, and 11 (ages 14 - 18) are invited to gather for the event. (Students entering grade 9 who are 14 years or older will also be considered, depending upon space.) The objectives of the initiative are as follows:

- Motivate African Nova Scotian Learners to attend university/college through positive exposure and participation in university campus life;
- Reflect and provide education from an Africentric perspective;
- Demonstrate the possibility of combining sports, technology, culture and academics in one's life;
- Stimulate consideration of future employment/career options;
- Provide opportunities to interact with other African Nova Scotian learners and with African Nova Scotian role models.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- The Application Form must be completed and signed by the candidate and a parent/guardian.
- The Recommendation Form must be signed by one of the following: school principal, vice-principal, teacher, guidance counselor, EA/TA, Regional Educator, clergy, social worker or Student Support Worker.
- Candidates must include with their application a written submission (maximum 1 page) as to why they would like to attend. It can be in the form of an essay, poem, rap/song, letter, short story, etc.
- All candidates and parents/guardians must agree to the "Participant Expectations" guidelines (attached)

• Deadline for submission of applications is Friday, June 12, 2015. Applications may be sent by mail, dropped off in person, or faxed in to the Kentville Black Educators Association office. Successful candidates will be notified by Friday, June 19, 2015.

\**If selected to attend Kamp Kujichagulia 2015, participants will be required to confirm their spot within 48 hours of contact; this is necessary as we often have a waiting list. If you are selected, and unable to attend please let us know A.S.A.P.*
